this thesis seeks to demonstrate the authenticity as dominical teaching of the parable of the darnel mt 13 24 30 and its interpretation mt 13 36 43 the interpretation in particular is almost universally regarded as non dominical notably by j jeremias and his followers my thesis argues that the whole of mt 13 36 43 and mt 13 24 30 should be seen as dominical the introduction gives a brief survey of parabolic studies and outlines the case against the authenticity of mt 13 24 30 36 43 chapter ai defends the authenticity of the parable mt 13 24 30 the following chapters do the same for the interpretation mt 13 36 43 looking at the son of man and related teaching chapter bi the kingdom of god bii righteousness and lawlessness biii and other motifs biv and finally the question of the coherence of the parable and its interpretation bv my approach has been negatively to demonstrate the weakness of the scholarly arguments against authenticity and positively to offer a case for authenticity via a a study of background including special study of the rural palestinian practices and of relevant jewish theological ideas and b a careful use of the criterion of multiple attestation which demonstrates that our material is linguistically and theologically coherent with other well attested jesus tradition the originality of the work lies apart from anything else in the fact that a full length defence of the authenticity of mt 13 24 30 36 43 has not been attempted before but we have also brought to bear various insights canvassed in other contexts but not specifically in connexion with mt 13 24 30 36 43 e g suggesting a background to the son of man tradition in ezekiel and the similitudes of enoch making use of the old testament concept of god as farmer explaining the agricultural background to the parable and interpretation
